Look at the passage together:

This week is all about PROPHECY

Share your experiences of:

- hearing prophecies
- giving prophecies

Can you recall any significant prophecies we as a church have responded to?

How do you know when this is God speaking?

What helps you decide about speaking this out?

Discuss the place of faith in this process. How do you apply faith to the written and spoken word?

OUT - impacting others...

Take some time to pray, invite the Holy Spirit and share any prophecies (words, pictures etc) with each other

Pray in to people's situations and seek to bring some revelation from God for them

BIBLE READING:

1 Corinthians 14:26-33

New International Version (NIV)

26 What then shall we say, brothers and sisters? When you come together, each of you has a hymn, or a word of instruction, a revelation, a tongue or an interpretation. Everything must be done so that the church may be built up. 27 If anyone speaks in a tongue, two—or at the most three—should speak, one at a time, and someone must interpret. 28 If there is no interpreter, the speaker should keep quiet in the church and speak to himself and to God.

29 Two or three prophets should speak, and the others should weigh carefully what is said. 30 And if a revelation comes to someone who is sitting down, the first speaker should stop. 31 For you can all prophesy in turn so that everyone may be instructed and encouraged. 32 The spirits of prophets are subject to the control of prophets. 33 For God is not a God of disorder but of peace—as in all the congregations of the Lord's people.
