

Session 15: Vocational wellbeing

Why am I here?

- Look at the chapters for days' 43 & 34
- Use the 'Reflect and Respond' section on page 173 to start discussion

Read the accounts of Jesus' teaching about 'The Greatest Commandment' in Matthew 22, Mark 12 and Luke 10, and then read the parable of The Good Samaritan in Luke

- What stands out for you?
- What questions do you have?
- What do you think God is saying to you personally in terms of your vocation to love God and neighbour?
- How might you respond?

Have a look at these questions together

- Where do you find it hardest to love God? Work, finances, relationships, character, behaviour...?
- Recall a time you have had to 'love your neighbour' in difficult circumstances? How did you do it?
- Can you identify divides you have set up in your life that prevent you from 'loving your neighbour'?
- What might it look like in your individual life to live out your overall calling?
- What is the Spirit of God leading you to do?
